

HR MANUAL

GUIDE TO PROVIDE INFO ABOUT POLICIES, PROCEDURES AND PRACTICES RELATED TO HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT AT INNOVATIONM

Introduction

We welcome you to InnovationM Technology Solutions Pvt. Ltd. We are excited to have you as part of our team and look forward to a long, happy and mutually rewarding relationship. This Employee Handbook is designed to acquaint you with the Firm rules and procedures and provide you with information about working conditions and employee benefits herein. It is a must to keep the HR policies current and relevant. Therefore, from time to time it will be necessary to modify and amend some sections of the policies and procedures, or for new procedures to be added. The change in the policy shall be communicated to you by the Firm and the same shall be applicable to you as amended.

About Us

With a design-led software engineering approach and use of modern technologies & frameworks, InnovationM has built 'serious' end-to-end web & mobile solutions for our clients. Statement of Philosophy

At InnovationM, we don't just create solutions; we craft experiences that redefine technology. We wish to maintain a work environment that fosters personal and professional growth for all employees. We encourage our staffs to:

- Foster cooperation and communication among each other
- Treat each other in a fair manner, with dignity and respect
- Promote harmony and teamwork in all relationships
- Strive for mutual understanding of standards for performance expectations, and communicate routinely to reinforce that understanding
- Seek to avoid workplace conflict, and if it occurs, respond fairly and quickly to provide the means to resolve it!.

When you Join!

Induction & Orientation

All new employees shall receive an induction & orientation session by the HR Team which will encompass an overview of general policies, procedures and operations of the company. This will also provide employees an opportunity and overview to learn the performance expectations management has with regard to the position. They will be given a copy of this Employee Handbook (via mail) and will be expected to learn its contents to address the future queries. They will also be made aware of mentioned policies and asked to sign off on their adherence to the same.

Daily Attendance Guidelines

- All employees are kindly encouraged to follow the standard working hours, which are set at 9 hours per day.
- The daily flexible login window starts at 9:00 am and ends at 10:00 am, with a 15-minute grace period extending until 10:15 am. If an employee arrives late more than three times in a month, the time will be adjusted against the available leave balance. Please discuss with the HR team for assistance or to explore strategies for improving punctuality.
- To ensure a smooth workflow and team coordination, we kindly request employees to be available during their designated office working hours. Active participation in the daily team sync-ups is highly valued, as it promotes effective communication and collaboration within the team.
- While we appreciate the need for breaks, we encourage employees to dedicate adequate time to their work, minimizing breaks during working hours. The company provides a 30-minute lunch break, along with 15 minutes for tea or snack time before and after lunch.
- For offshore teams, it is mandatory to log in and out daily using the biometric system. For onsite teams, kindly mark your attendance through HRMS as per company guidelines. Your cooperation in these matters is greatly appreciated.

Employee Role Highlights

We believe in encouraging a positive and dynamic work environment where each employee plays a crucial role in our collective success. We expect our team members to perform in the roles discussed during the hiring process and as communicated after joining. Clear job responsibilities and any additional tasks, are shared with employees post-handover to their team lead.

Our commitment to continuous improvement includes ongoing performance reviews, conducted both during the probationary period and on a monthly basis thereafter. We recognize and appreciate the dedication of our employees, and this process serves to ensure mutual growth and success within our vibrant workplace.

Celebration & Fun Time!

Monthly Reward & Appreciation

To recognize and appreciate outstanding contributions, we celebrate monthly achievements with rewards and appreciation to encourage a culture of excellence and performance.

R&R Celebration

Every year, we formally host a Recognition and Rewards party to acknowledge and honor exceptional efforts, promoting a sense of accomplishment and recognition.

Festival Celebrations

Embracing diversity, we actively participate in celebrating various festivals like holi, diwali, republic day, independence day, christmas etc fostering inclusivity and a sense of community among our employees.

Other Recreational Activities

In addition to formal celebrations, we organize various recreational activities and team-building activities, fun friday & birthday celebrations, employee engagement celebrations, marriage gifts, team lunch, sports day, day-outing etc to promote a healthy work-life balance and strengthen team bonds.

Leave Benefits

Company Holidays

- Apart from the regular weekend break on Saturday and Sunday, the company observes a total of 10 holidays annually, comprising both National and Festival Holidays.
- Information about these holidays will be accessible to employees through the HRMS portal starting January 1st each year.
- Employees stationed at client locations are required to adhere to the holiday calendar specified by the respective client.

Casual Leave (CL)

- Employees are entitled to a total of 6 Casual Leaves (CLs) per year, equivalent to 0.5 leaves per month. Casual leave is typically granted for 1-2 days to accommodate personal reasons or emergencies that necessitate an employee's absence from work.
- Casual leave (CL) should be applied in HRMS either before or, at the very least, on the same day for approval.
- It is kindly requested that employees submit leave requests well in advance, and the approval is subject to the discretion of the Reporting Manager (RM).
- Please note that employees joining after the 20th of the month are not eligible to accrue CL for that particular month.
- CLs are encouraged to be utilized in instances of personal or family emergencies, medical appointments, or any unforeseen situations preventing attendance at work.
- Upon resignation, employees will not accrue casual leave (CL) for the month in which they have submitted their resignation. Furthermore, CL cannot be availed during the Notice Period. If a weekly off or holiday falls between the applied CL, it will be considered as Leave (Sandwich Leave).
- Please be advised that CL balances will not be carried forward to the next year. Your understanding and cooperation in adhering to these guidelines are appreciated.

Sick Leave (SL)

- Employees are entitled to a total of 6 Sick Leaves (SLs) per year, equivalent to 0.5 leaves per month.
- Employees who commence employment after the 20th of the month are not eligible to accrue SL for that specific month.
- Sick leaves are designated for emergency situations arising from personal illness, injury, or medical appointments.
- In the event of the need for sick leave, employees are obligated to promptly inform their supervisor or the HR department.
- Sick leave (SL) needs to be applied in HRMS on the same day or, at the very least, the next day for approval.
- Medical Certificate for Extended Sick Leave: For three or more consecutive days of sick leave, employees must provide a medical certificate from a qualified healthcare provider to the HR team within 3 days of resuming work.

- Sick Leave during Resignation: Upon resignation, employees will not accrue sick leave for the month in which they submit their resignation.
- Sick leave can be availed during the Notice Period, but it will be considered as leave without pay.
- If a weekly off or holiday falls between the applied sick leave, it will be counted as Leave (Sandwich Leave).
- Sick leave balances will not be carried forward to the next year.

Privilege Leave (PL)

- Effective January 1, 2024, new employees only will be entitled to accrue 1.25 leaves per month, resulting in a total of 15 Paid Leaves (PLs) per annum. Please note that employees who commence their tenure after the 20th of the month will not be eligible to earn PL for that specific month.
- Planned Leaves (PLs) exceeding 3 days, applications must be submitted at least one month in advance. For leave lasting 2-3 days, please submit your application at least 15 days in advance in SumHR with a leave approval email. This will greatly assist in managing team workflows and project timelines.
- Furthermore, in the event of an employee's resignation, PL will be earned for the notice month(s) during which the resignation is submitted. However, should an employee exit prior to the last day of a given month, no PL will be accrued for that month.
- Employees resigning before completing one year of service will not be eligible for PL encashment during the settlement process. Additionally, a maximum of 30 PLs can be accumulated at any given time, and any excess PLs beyond this limit will be forfeited during the Full and Final (FnF) settlement.
- PL is not eligible for contract employees.
- Of the 15 PLs earned annually, a maximum of 10 can be carried forward to the subsequent year if unused. Upon separation from the company, only the remaining PL balance will be encashed, calculated based on the employee's basic salary.
- If an employee's payroll is transitioned from a Contract to a Full-time role, the PL policy will be applied based on the Full-time date of joining. Any weekly off or holiday that falls between applied PL days will be considered as a Leave (Sandwich Leave).
- Please be advised that the management reserves the right to refuse leave applications or enforce leave without pay in case of a work emergency before the utilization date.

Compensatory Leaves (Comp offs)

- Comp offs is an entitled leave that an employee can earn as a compensation for working at RMs request on a holiday or weekend.
- Employees are required to mark attendance (clock in-clock out) in HRMS as usual if working on any weekend/holiday and will be later approved by HR only after it is approved by RM.
- Employees working at onsite/client projects need to share the approval mail from the reporting manager to HR for approval.
- Comp-off might not be applicable/availed if a client/project gets changed and was earned while working at a previous client/project. To avail the same employee needs to take an approval from existing client/project manager and HR to avail previous comp-off.
- All leaves availed in lieu of comp offs will be approved only RMs approvals.

- All comp-offs will have lapsed within 80 days of the generated date.
- The management reserves the right to reject the comp off earn request if discrepancies found in the work.
- Comp offs will be applicable only if an employee completes a minimum of 8 hours.

Maternity Leave

- All female employees who have maintained continuous employment for a minimum of 80 working days within the 12 months immediately preceding their expected date of delivery are entitled to maternity benefits totaling 26 weeks of paid leave, whether taken prior to or following childbirth. However, it is important to note that the employee is not permitted to commence leave more than 8 weeks prior to her expected date of delivery.
- In the event of maternity leave, the employee is required to submit an application or request at least 6 weeks in advance, as stipulated by the Maternity Benefit Act of 1961, specifying the expected date of delivery.
- The employee must furnish a medical certificate confirming the pregnancy, including details such as the expected date of birth and the proposed commencement date of maternity leave.
- Maternity leave can be availed following approval from the respective RM (Resource Manager) or HR (Human Resources). For further clarification or information or extended policy document regarding maternity benefits, compensation and leave policies, please feel free to contact the Human Resource Department.

General Leave Rules

- The privilege leave benefit is applicable exclusively to on-roll/permanent employees.
- Employees engaged as contractors, consultants, and interns are eligible for only one 1 casual leave per month.
- Employees need to review their leave balance before applying as any leave availed beyond eligibility / approval will be marked as leave without pay. For more clarity connect to the HR team.
- If an employee has approved leaves but the project/client is changed before the leave date(s), then the employee is responsible to inform and take another approval from the existing manager.
- Leave balances accumulated by contractual/consultant/intern employees will not be encashed upon separation from the company; instead, they will be lapsed or adjusted with the Full and Final (FnF) payment.
- All leave requests must be pre-planned and pre-approved by the Reporting Manager. Any leave, except Sick Leave (SL), applied after the designated leave date(s) will be categorized as Leave Without Pay (LWP).
- Leave taken beyond the entitlement for the calendar year will be considered Leave Without Pay (LWP) and will be reconciled at the end of the calendar year or sooner. CL, PL, and SL cannot be availed together or in combination on the same day.
- All leave applications should be submitted through the Human Resource Management System (SUMHR) exclusively.
- We encourage our employees to serve notice period properly and avoid taking excessive leaves. During the notice period, no leaves remain active (usable), and any leave type taken during this period will be treated as leave without pay, potentially extending the notice period and calculated based on the gross Cost to Company (CTC).

- No leaves will be adjusted against the notice period upon separation.
- Employees are advised not to intentionally combine two types of leaves or apply the incorrect type of leave to prevent the lapse of unused leave days.
- Sandwich leave is applicable to on-roll, interns, and contractual employees. This means that leave deductions will include weekly off days or holidays when leaves are applied on the day preceding or following them. For instance, if you request leave on both Friday and Monday, a total of 4 leaves (PLs) will be deducted.

Work Location

The Company follows work from the office schedule and the base location is Noida. Though the employee has been appointed for a specific location discussed at the time joining, the company reserves the right to send you on deputation/transfer/assignment to any of the offices or clients, whether existing at the time of your appointment or to be set up in future.

Compensation Policy

- Monthly salary disbursement date is the 7th of every month. In case, the holiday is falling on the 7th date, then the salary will be credited to the very next working day of the holiday(s).
- Employees who joined after the 25th of any month; their salary will not be processed next month and will be paid as arrears with next month's salary. For Ex: If some joins on the 26 Jan then his/her salary would be paid with Feb month's salary on the 7th of March.
- Contract fees/payments will have a 10% monthly deduction as per government compliances.
- Employees shall experience deduction in the salary if they have negative leave balance.
- Employees shall experience deduction in the salary of attendance if the salary month is incomplete or not as per the working hour policy.
- During the notice period (duration as per the appointment terms), the salary will be on hold and paid along with the full and final settlement. The accounts department will review the account and settle the same as per the policies of the company within 45 days of relieving.
- All employees must submit the investment proofs (if applicable) in January month post intimation by the HR department in HRMS portal to avoid any TDS deductions.
- TDS will be applicable as per the government rules and regulations.

Performance Management

Probation Period

During the employee's probation period, the reporting manager will provide continuous encouragement, praise, support and guidance, to enable the employee to reach their agreed objectives and performance targets. When the manager identifies that there has been some improvement in the employee's performance, but has still fallen short of the agreed improvement timescale, a decision will be made to extend the probationary period. Should performance continue to fall short of expectations despite support, we may need to consider discontinuing employment, with at least one week's notice, as a last resort. Probation confirmation mail will be shared by the HRD.

Performance Review & Evaluation

Our Performance Review is a monthly process where we use a holistic approach aimed at recognizing exceptional performers and providing constructive feedback to those who lack in achieving desired job targets. Our commitment to regular feedback ensures that employees receive timely and actionable insights into their performance. We believe in the power of continuous improvement and strive to correct any shortcomings through targeted training, ongoing assessments, knowledge sharing sessions and guidance. Simultaneously, we acknowledge outstanding achievements through rewards and recognition.

Yearly Performance Appraisals

We follow a yearly appraisal cycle every April. To be eligible, employees must complete a minimum of 12 months with the company before the upcoming cycle. Appraisals are individually tailored based on the employees' joining date, performance evaluations & assessments, monthly ratings & feedback, future assignment potential, behavior, attitude, attendance, and overall journey with the company. Exceptional employees receive appraisals reflecting their outstanding contributions, emphasizing our dedication to recognizing and rewarding excellence.

Performance Improvement Plan

In the event of performance challenges, our Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) provides a supportive framework. We establish clear expectations within a time duration and collaborate with team leads to outline a personalized improvement plan. During this process, employees receive the necessary help and guidance to meet expectations. PIPs are periodically assessed, extended if needed, or, if improvement is not observed, may lead to the separation from employment with or without notice. Our goal is to empower employees to overcome challenges and excel in their roles to meet the job objectives.

Job Role or Technology Migration

At InnovationM, we firmly believe in empowering our workforce by equipping them with the latest skills and knowledge. In response to business needs, organizational challenges, performance shortfalls, or organizational restructuring, there may be instances of technology migration, role adjustments, and other changes aimed at achieving collective company goals.

During such transitions, our L&D Coordinator, department leads and HR professionals are committed to providing comprehensive training modules, clear timeframes, guidance, and supportive sessions to ensure a smooth adaptation. Our commitment to creating an environment where learning is continuous and professional development is a shared journey remains unwavering. Your success and growth within the organization are of paramount importance to us, and we are dedicated to supporting you through every step of these changes.

Training & Development

At InnovationM, we hold a strong commitment to the ongoing learning and development of our valued employees. Our comprehensive Learning and Development initiatives employ diverse strategies to elevate skills, broaden knowledge, and enhance overall competency. We actively engage with our employees to identify their unique training needs and career aspirations. This ensures that our development programs not only bring tangible benefits but are also enjoyable and personally meaningful.

Elements of L&D Process

- Skill Gap Analysis - We conduct a thorough analysis of skill gaps in employees to identify areas for improvement required for the role.
- Training Modules - Professional training modules, coupled with top-rated online courses, are provided to enrich concepts and skills.
- Regular Assessments - Regular assessments like online test, mock interviews, on-job performance ect are conducted to evaluate training progress and ensure the mastery of acquired knowledge.
- Mentorship - A mentor or buddy is aligned to guide and assist employees throughout their training programs, promoting a supportive learning environment.
- Knowledge Sharing Sessions - Experienced talents from our tech team conduct knowledge-sharing sessions and doubt resolution sessions, promoting collaborative learning.
- Technical Blogs - We encourage knowledge dissemination through the publication of technical blogs, enhancing understanding and fostering a culture of continuous learning.

Training Certification

Upon successful completion of the training, employees meeting the criteria, including timely completion and satisfactory assessment scores, are eligible to receive a training certificate from the company signed by the HR department.

Code of Conduct

Workplace Decorum Policy

Employees are required to maintain a high level of professional conduct, exhibiting discipline through punctuality, adherence to company policies, and a dedicated commitment to performing their duties diligently. Encouragement is given for a positive behavior and attitude towards colleagues, superiors, and the work environment, fostering a harmonious workplace culture that enhances overall productivity and employee well-being. Any infractions of this code may lead to disciplinary action, as the company is dedicated to upholding a work environment characterized by respect, discipline, and positivity.

Laptop Usage Policy

The Company provides laptops at its expense for official use only. Employees should restrict themselves from any kind of personal use of the laptop. All messages sent by or received on these systems are company documents. The Company reserves the right to access and to disclose the messages that you send or receive on the computer and internet systems.

Company Assets Policy

As acknowledged by the employee during his/her induction formalities (Asset Allocation Form); the issued assets like laptop, charger, mouse, tablets, phones etc are to be kept in good shape. Any loss/damage to those assets would be the responsibility of the employee and will be recovered from them in partial or in full.

Information Security Policy

Throughout the duration of your employment, we place our trust in you to manage confidential information with utmost integrity and caution in accordance with company guidelines. Upon the conclusion of your employment, it is imperative that you promptly surrender all files, documents—whether in digital or hard copy format—and any other databases entrusted to you during your tenure of employment. Your cooperation in upholding the confidentiality and security of our information is crucial to maintaining the trust and integrity of our organization.

Dress Code Policy

The Company encourages a business casual work environment to maintain comfort and professionalism. Employees must use discretion in attire selection, ensuring it aligns with the office setting. While business casual allows flexibility, overly casual or revealing clothing is discouraged. Attire with offensive slogans or graphics is not permitted. Exceptions may be made for specific events or roles with different dress standards. The company trusts employees to make sensible choices that uphold our professional image.

Health & Safety Policy

We are committed to accommodating individual health needs or emergencies. If you have specific health concerns or emergencies that require special consideration, please communicate with the appropriate channels within the company. The Company will make every effort to keep the office equipment in excellent condition and make sure that all safety devices are working properly.

- Promotes No Smoking - The Company maintains a non-smoking policy within its office premises.
- Drug, Tobacco and Alcohol Policy - The Company is committed to maintaining a productive, safe, healthy work environment and free of unauthorized drug, tobacco and alcohol use. Any employee involved in the unauthorized use or possession of controlled substances, illicit drugs and alcohol on Company premises or work sites, or working under the influence of such substances, will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal and referral for prosecution.

Employee Data

Each employee should inform HR of changes in his/her personal information like mobile number, address, emergency contact numbers, etc. The same can be informed to HR via email as soon as possible. It is the responsibility of the employee to ensure that the information available to the company is correct at any point in time.

Say No to Harassment

Workplace harassment is strictly prohibited at InnovationM. It encompasses various behaviors that undermine a respectful and inclusive workplace environment. This policy outlines the types of harassment and the procedures in place to address and prevent following incidents:

- Bullying
- Intimidation
- Direct insults
- Malicious gossip
- Sexual harassment
- Victimization

Internal Complaint Committee (ICC)

- We have established the Internal Complaint Committee (ICC) to safeguard our employees. The ICC is responsible for addressing and resolving complaints related to harassment in the workplace as soon as it is reported.
- Employees are encouraged to report any form of harassment promptly.
- Contact or email to Sr HR Manager (Parul Upadhyay - ICC Chairperson) OR Sachin Prakash (ICC Member) in any case of harassment, regardless of its perceived severity.
- Any information disclosed during the reporting process will be treated with the utmost confidentiality.

Disciplinary Consequences

We are committed to encouraging a workplace free from harassment, where all employees feel respected and valued. Your well-being is our priority, and we nurture open communication to promptly address and resolve any concerns related to workplace harassment. Retribution depends on the severity of the offense and may include counseling, reprimands, suspensions or termination. We, as a team, contribute to creating a positive, safe and secure work environment for everyone.

When it's Departure Time!

Resignation

- An employee who wants to resign, may proceed by initiating the resignation through the HRMS profile, following the terms outlined in the appointment letter.
- All employees are strictly required to communicate their resignation directly through the HR Team to ensure a smooth transition and maintain confidentiality. Disclosing resignation status, notice period, or salary details—whether directly, indirectly, formally, informally, or via social media platforms like LinkedIn—is strictly prohibited. This applies to all employees, including permanent, contractual, and third-party resources.
- Any such disclosure to clients, vendors, or external contacts without prior written approval from HR will be treated as a serious policy violation. Non-compliance will lead to disciplinary action and may impact the employee's relieving process and full & final settlement.
- Employees serving notice period will be relieved from their responsibilities upon completing the specified duration outlined in the appointment letter or as per the need in the current project, work dependancies and role required in the company.
- There is no provision for a notice period buy-out option or adjusted with remaining leaves, employees are required to fulfill the entire notice period in accordance with the terms and conditions of their appointment or as per the HR department decision.
- Throughout the notice period, employees ensure the timely completion of assigned tasks without disruptions, such as work delays, excessive leaves, or exerting pressure on team leads or HR for early release. If an employee does not serve the required notice period due to other / any of the above reasons and is exited from the company, the company will recover the notice period shortfall to the fullest extent possible from the final settlement.
- If an employee resigns before the salary disbursement then the salary of the previous month will also be withheld and will be paid with full and final settlement.

Full and Final Settlement

Asset Return and Reimbursement

- Upon the completion of your employment with our company, we kindly ask for the prompt return of any company assets. If you are working remotely or at a client location, please ensure the return of these assets within 10 days of your departure to be eligible for reimbursement of courier expenses.
- For individuals located in the Delhi NCR region, we request that you personally hand over the assets to our administrative team at our Noida office. Your cooperation in this matter is greatly appreciated.

Post-Employment Non-Compete Clause

- We value the trust and confidentiality inherent in our business relationships. As such, for a period of 24 months post-employment, we require that you refrain from engaging in any professional capacity—whether full-time, part-time, or contractual—with any clients, prospective clients, subsidiaries, or affiliates of InnovationM. This includes entities you may have interacted with or worked for during your tenure with us.

- To ensure compliance with this clause, the company may request verification of your subsequent employment. This could involve, but is not limited to, a confirmation email from the HR department of your new employer.

Settlement Processing

- The processing of your Full and Final (F&F) settlement is contingent upon a positive and complete separation process from the company. This includes adhering to our handover protocols and returning all company or client assets promptly.
- Please be aware that any delays or issues during this process, such as incomplete knowledge transfer, late asset return, reported performance issues, insufficient attendance, unauthorized sharing of confidential information, or dereliction of duties, may lead to a delay, partial payment, or adjustment in your F&F settlement.
- We emphasize the importance of fulfilling all exit formalities to ensure a smooth and timely settlement.
- Your F&F settlement will be processed within 45 days of your last working day, subject to the successful completion of the aforementioned criteria.

Dismissal Policy

Our company values transparency and fairness in all aspects of employment, including our dismissal policies. These policies encompass two main categories: dismissal for cause and dismissal without cause.

Dismissal for Cause - In cases where dismissal with cause is necessary such as, but are not limited to, conflicts of interest, dishonest or fraudulent behavior, disciplinary issues, breach of employment terms, harassment, behavioral concerns, non-completion of a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP), continuous underperformance, or insubordination, we may need to terminate employment with or without notice. These decisions are made with careful consideration and in accordance with legal standards. Such actions are serious and warrant immediate attention to maintain a healthy and safe workplace for all.

Dismissal without Cause - Sometimes, changes in our business structure or needs can lead to employment termination that isn't based on individual performance or behavior. In these instances, we are committed to providing either a notice period or compensation, as applicable. This approach is part of our commitment to a respectful and considerate separation process, acknowledging the contributions of our employees.

In both scenarios, we strive to support our team members with open communication and assistance during their transition. This reflects our dedication to treating all employees with respect and dignity.

For more specific information on notice periods and compensation, please consult with the HR department. We are always available to discuss and clarify any aspects of this policy.

Rehire

At InnovationM, we value the contributions of our employees, and we understand that career paths may lead individuals in different directions. Therefore, employees who leave InnovationM in good standing and later express the desire to return will be eligible for consideration for rehire, provided that there is an appropriate position available that aligns with their skills and qualifications.
